

S.W.E.A.C SHOUT OUT!

Back to School Edition

SEPT 2016

The Sudbury Workers Education and Advocacy Centre is a non-profit, community/worker based organization committed to improving the lives and working conditions of people in low-wage and unstable employment.

Right of the Month

Full-time students working in jobs listed below and attending a primary or secondary school, or a post-secondary educational institution (except when on holiday) are exempt from holiday pay, public holidays, and overtime. These exemptions are regardless of their age, whether they work more than 28 hours per week, or work at times other than school holidays.

These jobs include:

- employed in a recreational program operated by a charitable organization registered under the federal Income Tax Act if their work or duties are directly connected with the program;
- employed at a camp for children; or
- employed to instruct or supervise children.

For more information about your rights at work contact SWEAC at 705-470-3323

BOOK A FREE WORKSHOP TODAY!

Help S.W.E.A.C inform the youth of Sudbury by hosting a Know Your Rights Workshop!

Subjects can include, but are not limited to, the Employment Standards Act, the Ontario Health and Safety Act, and the Ontario Human Rights Code. Now available in both French and English!
